Muzrai Department—

Sir, I have the honor to state that the temple of Sri Ranganathaswami in Handrala village, in the Maddagiri Taluk, a Muzrai Institution enjoying a land Inam noted in the margin, is reported to be in urgent need of repairs and that the cost of repairs is estimated to be Rs 4604/- as per estimate herein enclosed. The Institution is one in which its devotees take interest judging from the contribution of Rs 265/- and odd - already collected by them towards the repairs of the temple; this amount is held in the Savings Bank Deposit in the Maddagiri Taluk Treasury in the name of Hanumantha Gowda, Patel of Handrala village who has promised to collect a further sum

Rs 50/- as soon as the work is started. The villagers pray that in addition to the above contribution, a grant of Rs 164/- from the State funds for carrying out the repairs as per estimate may be sanctioned. The Amildar of Maddagiri reports in his no 997, dated 30th March 1908, that the temple building is in such a bad condition that it requires immediate attention and recommends its repair. In these circumstances, it is requested that a sum of Rs 149/- may be kindly sanctioned out of the State funds and sanction to the accompanying estimate accorded at a very early date.

2. The file of Vernacular correspondence ending with the Maddagiri Sub divisional assistant Commissioner's yadi No 1205, dated 18/22 April 1908, is herewith forwarded for reference.
